

May 1-8, 2016 Campout at Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds, Hiawasse, GA

By Jeannine Fontaine and Bobbi Harden

There were eight members at the May campout: Bobbi Harden, Jeannine Fontaine, Linda Bartlett, Dorothy Spang, Arlene Williams, Sandie Burns, Janet Dickson, and Joanie Sanford (new member); and one guest, Marlene Barton.

Different groups went to area attractions. Some went to Blairsville, visiting the museum and shopping at Alexander's. Some visited Fields of the Wood in Murphy, NC. It was built by donations by the Church of God of Prophecy from all over the country. The Ten Commandments are in huge letters on the side of the mountain. It has a replica of Jesus' tomb, a chapel, baptismal pool, etc. We visited the flea market in Murphy, gardens at the Fairgrounds, ate out a few times, and on Friday we had a Murbles tournament. Dorothy came in 1st, Bobbi 2nd and Arlene 3rd. Prizes included Irish Spring soap, dryer sheets (to keep mosquitoes and mice away), and a plastic wineglass and a Freightliner notebook. We also had a birthday celebration for Bobbie with cake and a card during happy hour

Linda Bartlett left early because she had a serious water leak under her sink. We heard from Linda after she got home that she has sold her motor home. At 78, she decided it was too much work to get ready for a trip, and the motor home had too many things wrong with it. She will probably drop out of SeLows.
